

BRISTOL & DISTRICT LADY GOLFERS' ALLIANCE
78TH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING HELD AT LANSDOWN GOLF CLUB
ON 12th November 2007

Mrs. Liz Nash, in the chair welcomed everyone to Lansdown.

Mrs. Liz Nash then asked the Ladies present to remember Barbara Rixson, Ruth Allwood, Jean Sewell and Ann Dyson, who passed away earlier this year.

Mrs. Nash then introduced the BDLGA committee members to those present.

She thanked Lansdown for hosting the meeting and thanked Terry Mercer for making the arrangements. She reflected on the inclement weather during 2007, and thanked all the Lady Captains who had responded so well to the BDLGA web site with their team results. She thanked Lindsey Hammond for her hard work in setting up the successful web site. She thanked Su Worthington of Bristol & Clifton and Val McFarlane of Lansdown for helping the Hon. Secretary with the input of the results.

Mrs. Nash then commented that she hoped the clubs had found arranging matches before the meeting beneficial.

Unfortunately there had been a problem during 2007 when clubs had arrived to play matches without a full team. She pointed out that sometimes there were unforeseen circumstances i.e. A broken down car but, in future, should it happen that a club is unable to field a full team they will be asked to withdraw from the Alliance the following year.

She continued to say that on a happier note Bristol & Clifton were entering a "C" team, this is for a trial year, and will be reviewed.

She informed the members that the committee had invested in mementos for the winners of the Foursomes events, these were Silver Ball Markers with the BDLGA logo. She informed the members present that the Handicap Foursomes Runners up Salver had been replaced as it had been misplaced. She then asked the secretary to convene the meeting.

Mrs. Fay Galley thanked Su Worthington and Val McFarlane for their help with league and foursome results during 2007. This made the updating of the web site easier for Lindsey Jenkins. She requested that Lady Captains passed on all the up to date information to their team captains, and reminded them that the Rules & Regulations were on the web site and ready for downloading. She reminded those present that they could also refer to the web site for details of "how to send in your results". An electronic summary sheet will be sent to all new Lady Captains.

The Chairman thanked her for her report and asked for any questions.

3. Championship Secretary Report

Annie Hill reported on the 26th Anniversary of The Harper Salver for 2007 played at Bath on a very fine June day. There were 47 entries and the scoring extremely well.

The Winner Joanne Hodge (Knowle), scored gross 144, second was Hannah Barwood (Knowle) also 144. All five gross scores were below par, and Bethan Pople aged 11 shot a nett 66 in the morning round.

Many thanks go to sponsors Harper Business Contracts for providing sponsorship, unfortunately they are not renewing their sponsorship. We are actively looking for funding, but next years competition will go ahead using the excess profit from this year. Our thanks go to Bath Golf Club for closing their course to members on a Sunday, something which many clubs were unable to do, whatever price we offered to pay.

Mrs. Hill remarked that it was her fifth and final year and it had been a privilege. She added that the Championship had moved forward and was now on the ELGA Order of Merit, a new course record for Bath Golf Club had been set, and many of the girls who had played in the past were now at the top of their game and some were professional. Many current players were in the England Elite squad. She hoped all the Members would support the new Championship Secretary to ensure the future of this prestigious event.

Liz Nash thanked Annie Hill for her hard work over the past five years in making this event so successful and such a great opportunity for youngsters. She presented Annie Hill with a Silver Ball Marker as a thank you.

Stockwood Vale asked how many meetings there would be for the Working Party, the chairman replied she hoped 3 or 4 but no more than 6. The venues would move around the Alliance area.

Kath Shiels of Stockwood Vale also thanked the Committee on behalf of all the Foursomes Winners for the Silver Ball Markers. She also remarked that she had found clubs most accommodating when trying to make the fixtures. This was noted and the Chairman thanked her for her comments.

The Chairman's Closing remarks:

LN explained that the Working Party was in no way changing the ethos of the Alliance but merely to look at the Rules and Regulations as over the past fifteen to twenty years the golfing world has changed. More proprietary clubs, more working ladies playing golf etc. LN reminded the Lady Captains that if they had any queries regarding the Rules not to hesitate in contacting either her or the Hon Secretary.
